

Alan was a very brave and adventurous boy. He enjoyed learning new things and exploring the land behind his house. One morning before he went exploring, he packed his backpack. He put many things inside. He packed a flashlight, a candle, matches, a compass, popcorn, a hard hat, and his lunch. Then he journeyed into the woods to his new secret spot.	11 22 34 45 60 62
The previous day he had discovered a cave, and today he wanted to explore it. Long, thick weeds hid the mouth of the cave. Alan pushed the weeds to the side and looked into the cave. It was too dark to see anything. He turned on his flashlight and looked inside again. The cave was only five feet tall. Alan just fit when he stepped inside.	74 88 104 116 128
Alan put his hard hat on. It would protect his head from the roof of the cave. He shined his flashlight around the cave. It was dry and cold inside. He walked around and explored the cave. He dropped popcorn behind him as he walked. He found old dishes in the cave. The cave walls displayed several paintings of animals.	143 157 168 182 188
Alan didn't know what he might find. He had dreamed about finding a lost treasure or some buried gold, but he knew he was more likely to find only mud and rocks. As he worked his way deeper into the cave, he discovered small waterfalls and sharp points of rock hanging from the ceiling.	200 215 230 241 242
When Alan reached the back of the cave, he stopped to eat his lunch. He was very hungry. But just as Alan finished eating, his flashlight went out. The batteries had died. It was very dark in the cave.	255 267 281
Alan struck a match so he could see. The flame lit up the cave. Then he lit the candle he brought. He carried it carefully. He followed the popcorn all the way back to the mouth of the cave. Alan had enjoyed the cave, but he thought he should pack more batteries for future explorations.	295 308 322 334 336

Alan was a very brave and adventurous boy. He enjoyed learning new things and exploring the land behind his house. One morning before he went exploring, he packed his backpack. He put many things inside. He packed a flashlight, a candle, matches, a compass, popcorn, a hard hat, and his lunch. Then he journeyed into the woods to his new secret spot.

The previous day he had discovered a cave, and today he wanted to explore it. Long, thick weeds hid the mouth of the cave. Alan pushed the weeds to the side and looked into the cave. It was too dark to see anything. He turned on his flashlight and looked inside again. The cave was only five feet tall. Alan just fit when he stepped inside.

Alan put his hard hat on. It would protect his head from the roof of the cave. He shined his flashlight around the cave. It was dry and cold inside. He walked around and explored the cave. He dropped popcorn behind him as he walked. He found old dishes in the cave. The cave walls displayed several paintings of animals.

Alan didn't know what he might find. He had dreamed about finding a lost treasure or some buried gold, but he knew he was more likely to find only mud and rocks. As he worked his way deeper into the cave, he discovered small waterfalls and sharp points of rock hanging from the ceiling.

When Alan reached the back of the cave, he stopped to eat his lunch. He was very hungry. But just as Alan finished eating, his flashlight went out. The batteries had died. It was very dark in the cave.

Alan struck a match so he could see. The flame lit up the cave. Then he lit the candle he brought. He carried it carefully. He followed the popcorn all the way back to the mouth of the cave. Alan had enjoyed the cave, but he thought he should pack more batteries for future explorations.